ON THE COVER

A native Northwesterner Dennis Erickson (lower left) begins his first season as the fifth head coach of the Seattle Seahawks. Erickson, who was born in Everett, Washington, was hired on January 12, 1995, after a highly-successful 13-year collegiate head coaching career. Included were a pair of national championships in 1989 and 1991 at the University of Miami. Two players Erickson will lean heavily on will be running back Chris Warren (right) and wide receiver Brian Blades (top). Warren led the AFC with a franchise record 1,545 yards rushing and was voted by his teammates as the Seahawks MVP. Blades has set a single-season reception record in each of the last two seasons and has more receptions at this point of his career (102 games) than 1995 Hall of Fame inductee Steve Largent (416-414).

FRONT OFFICE

KEN BEHRING
Owner

Seattle Seahawks owner Ken Behring is a man of foresight and passion.

In 1950, after selling cars as a teenager, he started a car dealership in a muddy lot, using money he'd earned from a newspaper route and using an old chicken coop as an office. Two years later, he acquired a Lincoln-Mercury dealership.

In 1956, opportunity called Behring to then sleepy Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He built a house for his family that sold before it was half-finished. His company developed the entire city of Tamarac, a planned recreational retirement community, where houses initially sold for $9,000, and now are worth close to $150,000, along with 10 other planned communities in South Florida. Foreseeing the state's rapid growth, he launched a modular home company to meet housing demands, founded a bank, and established the Miami International Merchandise Mart, a trade facility. The modular home company built 3,000 homes in 1971, when Behring sold the firm to pursue other interests.

On the advice of friends, Behring left Florida and flew over the Blackhawk Ranch in the Mount Diablo Foothills of Northern California. He bought 5,000 acres to match his vision of the finest planned country club community. Behring donated 2,000 acres to nearby Mount Diablo State Park and turned the rest into Blackhawk, a 2,300-home community that offers residents two 18-hole golf courses, a tennis and swim club, and a 25-acre sports complex. He's also developed Canyon Lakes in California.

Blackhawk is much more than a planned community, it's an ideal setting for a world-class cultural plaza and is home to the Behring Auto Museum, the Behring-Hofmann Educational Institute, The UC-Berkeley Museum, and The Academy of Achievement.

"I believe in achievement," says Behring. "Our country became great because of achievement and I was lucky enough to be born in a country that gave me the opportunity to do what my abilities would allow. Achievement is a matter of having goals and determination, of accepting luck and failure. You just can't underestimate luck. People make their own luck, but you still need a little of God's grace.

"I plan to spend the rest of my life trying to give that back, and that's what's so enjoyable now."

Recognizing that automobiles are "an investment in mankind" and an important aspect of American culture, The Behring Auto Museum showcases the magnificent history of the automobile from turn-of-the-century horseless carriages, through the Jazz era, to classics built between the two world wars, up through the modern era. The museum features video interaction between guests and the designers of the classics. In addition, the W.E. Miller Transportation Research Library is located nearby.

The Educational Institute has been affiliated with the University of California at Berkeley since 1983, and is a non-profit charitable corporation that provides world class cultural resources to the East San Francisco Bay area, while the museum provides a year-round educational resource center that features exhibits ranging from Anthropology and Paleontology, to contemporary furniture design, to art and artists.

Behring serves as president and one of three patrons of The Academy of Achievement, a 32-year-old Southern California organization that is a hall of fame of accomplishment. The academy, which was moved to Blackhawk in 1993, honors a philosophy Behring espouses: It is not what talents and resources people start out with that matters nearly as much as how they develop them. Resolve, passion, and discipline are the best qualities.

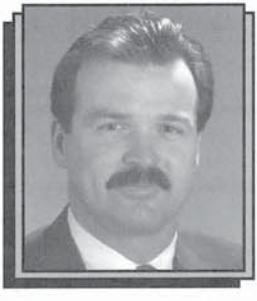
Behring has applied the same foresight and passion to the Seahawks that he has with his other interests. With the NFL in a new era of free agency, he appointed his son, David, team president, to fulfill his goal of having the franchise prepared to meet the new era head-on.

Since purchasing the Seahawks on August 30, 1988, Behring has become active in the Seattle community affairs by serving as Past President of the American Academy of Achievement, as Honorary Chairman of the "Seahawks NFL Man of the Year Night," which has raised almost $200,000 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association from 1991-1995, and by contributing to the PONCHO Auction and the Seattle Art Museum.

DAVID BEHRING
President



David Behring, son of Seahawks majority owner Ken Behring, was named the Seahawks President on January 19, 1993.

Since assuming this position, he's guided the franchise through the myriad of changes that have been part of the NFL. He has spearheaded entry into free agency and salary cap economics and was instrumental in the hiring of Head Coach Dennis Erickson last January. In 1993, NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue appointed him to the Realignment Committee and in 1994 was selected to serve on the influential Finance Committee.

Off-the-field, Behring brought the NFL Experience, the league's interactive theme park, to Seattle, while this past offseason saw a "New Attitude" campaign instituted as well as a new style and type of entertainment to the Kingdome. Another part of this "New Attitude" is the establishment of the Seattle Seahawks Charitable Foundation, which will raise money for children's charities in the Puget Sound area.

An attorney licensed to practice in both California and Florida, David has served the past five years as the Executive Vice President of Blackhawk Corporation, a Northern California land development company.

Born in Wisconsin in 1955, he moved with his family to Florida the following year, and graduated from Pine Crest High School in Fort Lauderdale in 1973. While in high school, he lettered in football, wrestling and track, serving as team captain in all three sports as a senior. Behring was an all-county, all-region and second-team all-state selection in football as a running back and set school and county records for single-season rushing yardage in 1972.

Behring graduated with a degree in History from Princeton University in 1977 and earned his law degree from the University of Miami in 1980. While at Princeton, he played two years of football and rugby, and one year of track and lightweight football.

He moved to Danville, California, in 1980 and started his own home building company, Great Bear Homes, Inc., which was renamed Great Bear Construction in 1984. The company specialized in premium golf course location homes and won the MAME award three times for marketing.

In 1990, his father appointed David as the Executive Vice President of Blackhawk Corporation in which he handled all legal and insurance issues, assisted the Corporation's partners in marketing, land planning, merchant-builder relations, shopping center management, country club management, and country club sales.

Behring has been an active member of the Northern California Building Industry Association (BIA) for over 10 years. In addition to being a Board Director during that period, he also served as President of the Educational COuncil in 1988 and as President of the BIA's Eastern Division in 1993.

Active in numerous community and charitable causes, Behring has co-chaired fund-raising events for the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Western Washington, Mt. Diablo Hospital Foundation, the East Bay Make-A-Wish Foundation, the Animal Rescue Foundation, and the Northern California NFL Alumni Association's "Caring for Kids" program. He will also spearhead the newly-created Seahawks Charitable Foundation which will benefit children's charities in the Puget Sound area.

His hobbies include fishing, football, racquetball, skiing, biking, and white-water rafting.

COACHING STAFF

DENNIS ERICKSON
Head Coach

SEAHAWKS: Named the fifth head coach in franchise history on January 12, 1995. Erickson follows Jack Patera (1976-82), Mike McCormack (1982), Chuck Knox (1983-91), and Tom Flores (1992-94) as the Seahawks head coach and is the first of the five not to have previous NFL coaching experience. A native of Everett, Washington, Erickson is one of four current NFL coaches to be the head coach of his hometown team. The others are the New York Jets Rich Kotite (Brooklyn, NY), the Pittsburgh Steelers Bill Cowher (Pittsburgh), and the San Francisco 49ers George Seifert (San Francisco).

COLLEGE HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: A proven winner in each of his four college head coaching jobs, Erickson posted a 130-40-1 overall record and won two national championships in 13 seasons as a head coach, enduring only one losing season. In addition, he's captured coach of the year honors in three different conferences, Big Sky, Pac 10, and Big East. Reached 100 career wins in his 137th game, becoming the third-quickest to reach that plateau among Division I head coaches active in 1994 trailing Penn State University's Joe Paterno (122 games) and the University of Nebraska's Tom Osborne (126 games). Spent the past six seasons at the University of Miami compiling an NCAA-best 63-9-0 record (.875) and winning national championships in his first season of 1989 and again in 1991. Posted a 35-2 mark at the Orange Bowl, including being part of an NCAA record 58 straight wins. Became only the second head coach in NCAA history to win a national championship in his first season at the school. The Hurricanes finished the 1989 regular season 10-1, losing only to Florida State, and defeated the University of Alabama in the USF&G Sugar Bowl, 33-25. During the year they knocked off the undefeated defending national champion University of Notre Dame, 27-10. At the end of the year they led the country in total defense (216.5 yards per game), rushing defense (69.1), and scoring defense (9.3 points per game). Erickson was a finalist for national coach of the year honors and was named the All-South Independent Coach of the Year. His 1990 squad finished 10-2 and ranked third in the country following a 46-3 win over the University of Texas in the Mobil Cotton Bowl. In 1991, Miami posted a perfect 12-0 mark capped by a 22-0 win over the University of Nebraska in the Federal Express Orange Bowl, winning a share of the national title with the University of Washington. Winning two national titles in his first three seasons at Miami matched the NCAA record set by the University of Oklahoma's Barry Switzer in 1974 and 1975. In 1992, his squad entered the Sugar Bowl 11-0 with a chance to capture a third national title, but dropped a 34-13 decision to eventual national champion Alabama, who finished 12-0. That squad finished third in the country. After both the 1991 and 1992 seasons he was named Big East Coach of the Year. In 1993 Miami finished 9-3 and was ranked 15th, while in 1994, they were 10-2, ranking sixth in the nation. While at Miami, his teams captured two national championships and entered three additional bowl games in contention for a national title, played in six straight New Year's Day bowl games, and won at least 10 games five times. Erickson coached 14 first-team All-America players, a Heisman Trophy winner (quarterback Gino Torretta in 1991), Outland Trophy winner (defensive tackle Russell Maryland 1990), and Lombardi Award winner, (defensive tackle Warren Sapp in 1994). In addition, Maryland was the first pick in the entire 1991 draft. He started his head coaching career at the University of Idaho in 1982 compiling a 32-15-0 (.681) mark in four seasons, the most wins in school history, and advancing to the NCAA I-AA playoffs his first and last seasons in 1982 and 1985. He was named Big Sky Coach of the Year both seasons and the 1985 team captured the school's first conference title in 14 seasons. In 1986 he moved to the University of Wyoming. He installed his Air Express attack in place of the wishbone and turned around a 3-8 team to one that went 6-6, losing three games by seven or fewer points, and finished second in the nation in passing offense, while breaking all school passing records. He moved to Washington State University in 1987 and after a 3-7-1 first season went 9-3-0 in 1988, taking the Cougars to the Aloha Bowl, their first bowl game since 1981, and only the fourth bowl game in school history. Washington State's 24-22 win over the University of Houston was the first bowl game win by a WSU team in 72 years and gave the Cougars a final national ranking of 16th, the highest in school history. That season also included an upset of number one ranked UCLA in Los Angeles. His quarterback, Timm Rosenbach, led the nation in passing efficiency with a 162.0 rating, and was later a first-round supplemental draft choice of the Arizona Cardinals in 1989.

COLLEGE ASSISTANT COACHING EXPERIENCE: Started his career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Montana State University, in 1969. He spent the next spring as a graduate assistant at Washington State before moving into the high school ranks as the head coach at Billings Central High School in Billings, Montana. In 1971, he returned to Montana State as the offensive backfield coach. In 1974 and 1975, he served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Idaho, before taking the same job at Fresno State University. In 1979, he moved to San Jose State University as their offensive coordinator remaining there until taking the head coaching job at the University of Idaho in 1982.

COLLEGE PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Was a three-year starter at quarterback at Montana State University from 1966 to 1968, twice earned first-team All-Big Sky Conference honors in 1967 and 1968, and was an honorable mention All-America as a senior. He set school records for career total offense (3,945 yards), career passing yards (3,181), passing yards in a single-season (1,819 in 1968), passing yards in a single game (282 versus Montana), while ranking second all-time with 126 points and 21 touchdowns. His 70-yard pass to Ron Bain against Northern Arizona in 1968 was a school record. In addition, he was the holder for future NFL Hall of Fame kicker Jan Stenerud. Graduated with a B.S. in Physical Education.

PERSONAL: Is a native of Everett, Washington, located 30 miles north of Seattle. His father, Robert (Pink) Erickson, was a highly-successful high school coach at Ferndale High School in Ferndale, Washington, and Cascade High School in Everett, and he and his wife, Mary, still live in Everett. Dennis attended Everett High School, lettering in football and basketball and was 2-1 against his father. The current head coaches of the University of Washington, Jim

SEAHAWKS HEADQUARTERS

In June, 1986, the Seahawks moved into their new office and training headquarters on a 12-acre site adjacent to Northwest College in Kirkland.

The 37,000 square foot, two-story building is the Seahawks year-round home, containing facilities for training camp as well as off-season and regular season practices.

The downstairs contains a 105-man meeting room, six ten-man meeting rooms, a weight room, two racquetball courts, an enlarged locker room, training room with rehabilitative facilities, and equipment room.

Upstairs houses the administrative offices, coaches offices and meeting rooms, the ticket office, and conference rooms.

Outside, the Seahawks are able to practice on three regulation fields, two of natural grass and one of Omni Turf. The turf field is covered in inclement weather by a 55-foot inflatable bubble, eliminating travel to the Kingdome for practice.

To reach the headquarters from Seattle, take Highway 520 Eastbound and exit at the Kirkland Exit. Go right onto Northup Way (first stop light) and left onto 108th Avenue NE (next stop light). Follow 108th for approximately one mile and turn right onto NE 53rd St. Continue to the top of the hill, passing the player and staff entrance on your left. Turn left at top of the hill into the visitor's parking area.

Leads in lowest percentage of interceptions (2.77), is second in completions percentage (54.1), and has a quarterback rating of 68.4. Also set franchise rookie records for touchdown passes (12), completion percentage (56.4%) and quarterback rating (67.0). Became only the third rookie quarterback since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to start all his team's games joining New England's Jim Plunkett (1971) and Buffalo's Joe Ferguson (1973). 1994: AFC's leading rusher with a team record 1,545 yards on 333 carries. Pro Bowl selection and team Most Valuable Player. Finished second in the NFL in rushing to Detroit's Barry Sanders (1,883) and was also runner-up to Sanders in total yards from scrimmage (1,868 to 2,166) and average per carry (4.6 to 5.7). Accounted for 40.2 percent of the Seahawks offense, the league's third-highest figure (Sanders 43.3% and Indianapolis' Marshall Faulk 40.9). Third in the conference in both total touchdowns (11) and rushing touchdowns (9). Only the second Seattle player to lead conference in rushing (Curt Warner 1983 and 1986). Took the lead with three games left and won the title by 195 yards over San Diego's Natrone Means. Broke Warner's 1986 marks for both yards (1,481) and total yards from scrimmage (1,822). Tied another mark with seven 100-yard rushing games. Became the first player in franchise history to have 1,000 yards after 12 games and broke Warner's mark in 15 games. Now the first player in franchise history to have three straight 1,000-yard seasons and the 28th in league history. Is one of only three players whose teams posted losing records in that time. Equalled two other marks with back-to-back 100-yard games and by scoring a touchdown in seven straight games. Tied another with a rushing touchdown in six straight. Posted the AFC's top single-game effort with a personal-best 185 yards on 30 carries at Houston, despite playing with fractured ribs. Yardage and attempt totals were the third highest in a single-game in franchise history. Had 184 yards on 28 carries through three quarters before re-injuring the ribs. Opened the season with 100 yards on 22 carries with two touchdowns at Washington, the first opening game 100-yard effort since 1986.

Scored two touchdowns the next week at the Los Angeles Raiders, one rushing and his first receiving. AFC Offensive Player of the Week for 126-yard, one-touchdown effort versus Pittsburgh. Had 117, including a 41-yard run at Kansas City; 122 and a score at Denver; 116, including 114 in the first half, versus Tampa Bay; and 122 against the Los Angeles Raiders. Became the first player in franchise history to have a rushing, receiving, punt return and kickoff return of at least 50 yards after a 51-yard reception at Denver. Reception was part of a single-game best 200 yards from scrimmage. Finished the season with a career-best 41 receptions for 323 yards and two touchdowns receiving. Had 33 catches for 242 yards prior to the season. Capped off his season with 127 yards on 14 carries in the Pro Bowl. Effort broke the game record of 112 yards by O.J Simpson in 1973, but was also surpassed by teammate Marshall Faulk, who had 180 yards. Warren broke the record first, but held it for one play.

CAREER: Drafted by Seattle on the fourth round in 1990 and was used primarily as a punt and kickoff returner his first two seasons before becoming the starting running back. Has posted three straight 1,000-yard rushing seasons, becoming only the 28th player in NFL history to have three-in-a-row and the first in franchise history. Has moved steadily up the rushing charts finishing fifth in the AFC in 1992, third in 1993, and first in 1994. Had a franchise record 1,545 yards in 1994 and set another mark with 1,868 total yards from scrimmage. Ranks third in team history in rushing yards (3,658) and attempts (846). Is second in both combined kick returns (180) and return yards (2,613) to Bobby Joe Edmonds (190-3,238). Made his first career start at running back at Pittsburgh and gained 13 yards on 11 carries in a 27-7 win. Had not carried the ball prior to that game and did not carry it after. Ranked third in the AFC in kickoff returns with a 22.6 yard average, including a 55-yard return against San Diego. Had two other returns of over 40 yards. It was Seattle's first touchdown return since 1986. Set a single-season mark with 19 fair catches and tied the one-game mark of five against Pittsburgh. 1992: Took over as the starting running back in the preseason and proceeded to become only the second player in team history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a single season. Started 16 games and totaled 1,017 yards on 223 carries, a 4.6 yard average, and three touchdowns. Entered the season having gained only 24 career yards on 17 carries. Became one of only eight players in league history to rush for 1,000 yards on a team that won two or fewer games. Had three 100-yard games; 124 at New England, 103 versus the Washington Redskins, and 156 against the Kansas City Chiefs. Also had 97 yards at Denver. Became the first player since 1988 to have three 100-yard games in the same season. Went over the 1,000-yard mark on a 30-yard touchdown run versus San Diego on December 27, but suffered a concussion on his second carry after the scoring run and missed the rest of the game. Had totaled 66 yards on five carries before the injury. Finished fifth in the AFC in rushing and was also fifth in total yards from scrimmage with 1,151, including 134 on 16 pass receptions. Inactive the last two games with an abdominal injury, but topped 1,000 yards for the second straight season, only the second time that's occurred in franchise history. Finished the season third in the AFC in rushing with a career-high 1,072 yards on 238 carries, only 16 yards out of second. Seahawks led the AFC in rushing averaging 125.9 yards per game. Was eighth in total yards from scrimmage with 1,171. Had three 100-yard rushing games, 174 on a franchise record 36 carries at New England, 168 on 27 carries versus Phoenix, and 112 on 24 attempts versus Cleveland. The 174 yards was a personal best and the fourth best total in team history and earned him AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors. Tied for fifth in the AFC with 7 rushing touchdowns. Had a 45-yard touchdown run on Seattle's second play of the Phoenix game. Caught 15 passes for 99 yards. Rushed for a game-high 64 yards on four carries for the AFC in the Pro Bowl.

3 Seattle Seahawks 30, Minnesota Vikings 19
Saturday, August 20, 1994 — Husky Stadium

Dan McGwire engineered three second half touchdown drives, including throwing two touchdown passes, as the Seahawks defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 30-19 in Husky Stadium. McGwire engineered a 79-yard, 8-play drive with the second half kickoff, ending with Lamar Smith's 27-yard scoring run, upping a 10-3 lead to 17-3. He then connected with Terrence Warren on a 14-yard scoring pass after Eugene Robinson's interception, and combined with Mack Strong on a 70-yarder in the fourth for a 30-11 advantage. Seattle took a 10-3 halftime lead on Chris Warren's two-yard scoring run and John Kasay's 55-yard into-the-wind field goal on the half's last play. The 55-yarder is a franchise best for the preseason and equaled the longest by a Seattle kicker in the regular season. The Seattle defense held the Vikings to 133 yards and one field goal in the first half, and recorded one takeaway. Smith rushed for a game-high 38 yards while Warren caught three passes for 37 yards. Strong accounted for 86 yards on his two receptions.

4 San Francisco 49ers 13, Seattle Seahawks 9
Friday, August 26, 1994 — Candlestick Park

The San Francisco 49ers scored 10 points on their first two possessions and held off the Seahawks 13-9 in the preseason finale for both teams. The 49ers Steve Young guided a pair of long drives, 11 plays, 54 yards, 5:18 TOP to Marc Logan's one-yard scoring run. A 17-play, 63-yard, 10:09 TOP ended in Doug Brien's 20-yard field goal. The Seahawks countered with field goals by John Kasay of 28 and 42 yards on their next two drives to cut the advantage to 10-6 at halftime. Kasay added a third field goal after the teams exchanged turnovers to start the third quarter, cutting the lead to 10-9, but Brien added his second three-pointer, a 29-yarder, on the ensuing drive, for a 13-9 lead. The Seahawks had two fourth quarter attempts to take the lead the first reaching the 49ers 42, before a punt, and the second ending with 1:06 left on Dana Hall's pass interception at the San Francisco 2. Young played the first half and completed 14-of-19 passes for 105 yards. As a team, the 49ers were 26-of-43 through the air for 226 yards, with one interception, and controlled the ball for 37:04. 2 Seattle Seahawks 38, Los Angeles Raiders 9
Sunday, September 11, 1994 — L.A. Memorial Coliseum

The Seahawks turned four Los Angeles Raiders turnovers into 24 points, including three second half touchdown passes from Rick Mirer in a 10:03 span for a 38-9 win at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The win was the Seahawks first over the Raiders since 1989, breaking an eight-game losing streak. Seattle built a 10-3 halftime lead on Chris Warren's four-yard touchdown run and John Kasay's 33-yard field goal. Warren's run capped the Seahawks opening possession, while Kasay's kick was set up by Rafael Robinson's recovery of a fumbled punt at the Raiders 19. The third quarter saw Terry Wooden and Patrick Hunter pick off passes to set up Mirer's touchdown passes to Brian Blades and Michael Bates. It was Bates first career touchdown on only his second career reception. Bob Spitulski added his first career interception in the fourth quarter to set up Mirer's 38-yard scoring pass to Chris Warren. In all, Mirer passed for 243 yards and a career high three touchdowns. Terry Wooden picked off a pass for the second consecutive week and Rod Stephens collected four tackles, including a pair of sacks, and forced a fumble.

3 San Diego Chargers 24, Seattle Seahawks 10
Sunday, September 18, 1994 — Husky Stadium

The San Diego Chargers used a pair of big plays and an opportunistic defense to stop the Seahawks 24-10 before a Seahawks record home crowd of 65,536 in Husky Stadium. The Chargers Chris Mims recovered a fumble at the San Diego 14 stopping Seattle's game-opening drive and fellow lineman Reuben Davis dropped Jon Vaughn for a 20-yard loss from the one to lead the San Diego first half defensive effort. After John Carney's field goal and Natrone Means' one-yard run gave the Chargers a 10-3 halftime lead, safety Stanley Richard returned an interception 73 yards for a touchdown. Backed up to their own one, San Diego's Stan Humphries connected with Tony Martin on a 99-yard touchdown pass, the longest touchdown pass by an opponent in Seahawks history and equaling the longest in NFL history. Seattle cut the deficit to 24-10 on Chris Warren's 11-yard scoring run, but could get no closer. San Diego limited the Seahawks to 187 total yards, including 59 rushing and recorded six sacks, three by Leslie O'Neal. Seattle lost running backs Chris Warren (elbow) and Jon Vaughn (eye) and starting cornerbacks Carlton Gray (ankle) and Patrick Hunter (hamstring) to injuries during the game. Warren returned and his rushing touchdown gave him at least one in a club record six consecutive games. The Seahawks were led by the career-high 15 tackles of Terry Wooden.

4 Seattle Seahawks 30, Pittsburgh Steelers 13
Sunday, September 25, 1994 — Husky Stadium

Chris Warren rushed for 126 yards and a touchdown and the Seahawks defense overcame 452 total yards allowed with four interceptions and a key goal line stand for a 30-13 win over the Steelers in Husky Stadium. Warren rushed for 82 of his total in the first half and ended the Seahawks game-opening drive with a three-yard score. It was his seventh straight game with a touchdown, equaling David Sims' team record. Warren extended his own record with a rushing touchdown in seven consecutive games. After Pittsburgh closed to within 7-3, Warren ran for 28 yards to the Pittsburgh one, setting up a touchdown pass. Rufus Porter's 33-yard interception return set up a field goal and a 17-6 halftime lead. Pittsburgh took the kickoff and advanced to a first-and-goal at the Seahawks two, but Seattle held with Eugene Robinson stopping Barry Foster from the one on fourth down. The fourth quarter saw Seattle pick off passes on three consecutive possessions the last by Orlando Watters, who returned it for a touchdown. Watters was making his first career start and was the first rookie free agent to start at cornerback for the Seahawks in their history. The four interceptions were the most by Seattle since they had five at Pittsburgh on December 6, 1992.

5 Indianapolis Colts 17, Seattle Seahawks 15
Sunday, October 2, 1994 — RCA Dome

Marshall Faulk rushed for a pair of short touchdowns and the Indianapolis defense stopped a fourth quarter comeback as the Colts defeated the Seahawks 17-15 in the RCA Dome. Faulk ran for a five-yard score in the first quarter and added a one-yarder on fourth down in the third. His first score overcame a 5-3 Seattle lead built on John Kasay's 42-yard field goal and Antonio Edwards' pressuring of Colts quarterback Jim Harbaugh into an intentional grounding call in the end zone. Kasay's kick was set up by Rod Stephens' forcing and recovering a fumble at the Colts 17 on their second offensive play. Indianapolis' first points came on a Dean Biasucci 45-yard field goal. Faulk's first score was set up by Eugene Daniels' pass interception and then upped the lead to 17-8 with a one-yard run on fourth-and-one in the third quarter. Seattle got the ball back twice, after Kelvin Martin's 30-yard touchdown reception closed the gap to 17-15. Both drives ended on downs, the first at the Indianapolis 33, after 14 plays, on a sack by Tony Siragusa, and the second at the Seahawks 40 on an incompletion. Martin equaled his single-game high with eight receptions, while recording his first career 100-yard game with 104. Faulk had a game-high 90 yards on 26 carries and added 23 yards on four receptions.

6 Denver Broncos 16, Seattle Seahawks 9
Sunday, October 9, 1994 — Husky Stadium

The Seahawks suffered their second consecutive loss, dropping a 16-9 decision to the Denver Broncos in Husky Stadium. Denver converted five Seattle turnovers into 13 points, including two field goals by Jason Elam and John Elway's two-yard run for the game's only touchdown. Elam added a third field goal at the end of a 42-yard, nine-play drive. Seattle entered the game having turned the ball over only five times in their first five games. Denver's only touchdown drive was aided by two Seahawks penalties. An offsides call nullified an Orlando Watters interception and a drive-stopping third down tackle by Robert Blackmon was negated by a holding call. Elway then scored on the next play. Leonard Russell rushed for a 103 yards on 24 carries, becoming the first runner in 1994 to hit the century mark against the Seahawks, and the first in 24 games dating back to October 17, 1993. For Seattle, Chris Warren rushed for 80 yards on 18 carries and added a career-high six receptions for 41 yards. Denver safety Steve Atwater had an interception and a fumble recovery, while cornerback Randy Hilliard intercepted a pass and forced two fumbles. For Seattle, linebacker Terry Wooden had his fourth straight game with at least 12 tackles, recording a game-high 12.

7 Kansas City Chiefs 38, Seattle Seahawks 23
Sunday, October 23, 1994 — Arrowhead Stadium

Joe Montana and Marcus Allen paced the offense while the Kansas City defense held the Seahawks to 263 total yards and had three sacks in a 38-23 win at Arrowhead Stadium. Kansas City jumped to a 13-0 halftime lead on Montana's nine-yard scoring pass to Kimble Anders and two field goals. At the half, the Chiefs held the advantage in total yards (233-58), plays (42-18) and time of possession (21:13-8:47). Seattle came out on the opening drive of the second half going 11 plays, including 10 rushing, leading to Jon Vaughn's three-yard scoring run. Allen then scored his touchdown and a two-point conversion and Montana connected with Lake Dawson for a score. After a field goal, Rick Mirer and Brian Blades hooked up for a pair of scores from one-yard and nine-yards out. The first was set up by Warren's season-long 41-yard run to the Chiefs three. Kansas City's 38 points were the most against Seattle since Denver scored 41 on November 26, 1989, a span of 75 games. Their 477 total yards were the most surrendered since a Montana-led San Francisco team rolled up 580 on September 25, 1988. Warren had his third 100-yard game of the season with 117 on 19 attempts.

Seattle jumped to a 7-0 second quarter lead only to see the Chargers score 35 unanswered points for a 35-15 win at Jack Murphy Stadium. The loss was the Seahawks fourth straight and left them 0-for-October. Chris Warren scored on a nine-yard touchdown run 2:19 into the period. 9 Cincinnati Bengals 20, Seattle Seahawks 17 (Overtime)
Sunday, November 6, 1994 — Kingdome

Doug Pelfrey's Cincinnati record sixth field goal of the game, 8:14 left into overtime, gave the visiting Bengals their first win of 1994, 20-17 over the Seahawks. The game was Seattle's first in the Kingdome since December 26, 1993, because of ceiling repair work. Pelfrey's kick came one play after quarterback Jeff Blake connected on a 76-yard pass to Darnay Scott to the Seattle 7. Blake, making only his second career start, threw for 387 yards, the sixth most yards by an opposing quarterback in team history. Scott had a personal best 157 yards as Cincinnati gained 496 total yards, the most allowed by Seattle since 1988. Pelfrey's six field goals broke the Bengals team record of five set four times previously, including once by Pelfrey. It also tied the Seahawks opponent record. His fifth with 4:27 left tied the game at 17-17. It was the 24th time in the Seahawks history that the team had not allowed a touchdown and dropped their record to 22-2. Seattle's Brian Blades became the second player in team history to have both a rushing and receiving play of at least 40 yards in the same game. Rod Stephens' 16 tackles led the defense and were the most by a Seattle player since 1987.

10 Denver Broncos 17, Seattle Seahawks 10
Sunday, November 13, 1994 — Mile High Stadium

Leonard Russell's 11-yard touchdown run with 5:43 left and a fourth down stop by the defense gave the Denver Broncos a 17-10 win over the Seahawks at Mile High Stadium. The win was the fourth straight by the Broncos over the Seahawks and puts them 14-3 all-time at home against Seattle. Denver used a second quarter scoring run by John Elway and a third quarter field goal to build a 10-0 lead before the Seahawks rallied to tie the game at 10-10. After a field goal, Chris Warren capped a 43-yard drive after Orlando Watters' interception with a touchdown run. Denver answered with a drive of their own capped by Russell's run. The Seahawks had one late drive, moving from their own 15 to the Broncos 22, primarily on the strength of Warren's 51-yard reception, but the Broncos held on downs with 1:19. Seattle was only 1-of-11 on third downs and failed three times to convert third-and-one situations and was penalized 12 times to only one for Denver. Warren accounted for a career-high 200 total yards from scrimmage, as Seattle gained 289 yards for the game. His 51-yard reception and 78 total receiving yards were a personal high. Warren added 122 yards rushing on 18 carries for his fourth 100-yard game of the season and 10th of his career. Russell had 109 rushing yards, the most allowed an individual by Seattle since the Philadelphia Eagles Herschel Walker had 111 on 12/13/92.

11 Seattle Seahawks 22, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 21
Sunday, November 20, 1994 — Kingdome

Mack Strong's seven-yard touchdown with 42 seconds left gave the Seahawks a 22-21 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Strong, who was in the game because of a hip injury to starting running back Chris Warren, contributed three carries for 20 yards and one reception for 5 yards on the drive. A first-year player, Strong was seeing action on offense for the first time in his career after spending the 1993 season on the practice squad. Seattle jumped to a 15-0 lead on a pair of Rick Mirer touchdown passes and Rick Tuten's two-point conversion run. Warren rushed for 76 yards on 10 carries in the first quarter, surpassing the 1,000-yard mark for the third consecutive season, and finished the first half with 114 yards on 14 carries. He was injured on his second carry of the second half and finished with 116 yards on 16 carries. Tampa Bay rebounded to take an 18-15 fourth quarter lead on two Craig Erickson touchdown passes and two field goals. Eugene Robinson sealed the win with an end zone interception on the game's final play. Eric Rhett rushed for 111 yards on 24 carries for Tampa Bay, who controlled the ball for 33:09 and was a plus-1 in the takeaway/turnover ratio. Martin Mayhew had an interception and a fumble recovery for the Buccaneers.

12 Seattle Seahawks 10, Kansas City Chiefs 9
Sunday, November 27, 1994 — Kingdome

The Seahawks scored 10 fourth quarter points, capped by John Kasay's 32-yard field goal with 1:42 left for a 10-9 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. The win was the Seahawks first over the Chiefs since 1990 snapping a seven-game losing streak to Kansas City. It also marked the first time in franchise history that the Seahawks have posted back-to-back one-point wins. The visitors took a 6-0 lead into the fourth quarter on a pair of Lin Elliott field goals. Seattle answered with a Steve Smith touchdown run before the Chiefs countered with Elliott's third field goal. The two teams then exchanged punts with the Seahawks Kelvin Martin returning his 16 yards to the Chiefs 39 with 2:57 left. Rick Mirer connected with Brian Blades for 16 yards and three Chris Warren runs positioned the ball on the 14 for Kasay's kick. Kansas City had one last drive moving to their own 43, but Orlando Watters forced a fumble, which Robert Blackmon recovered and Seattle ran out the clock. Blackmon tied a Seattle record with two fumble recoveries, while also forcing one. Cortez Kennedy had a season-high 9 tackles. The Chiefs bottled up Warren, the AFC's leading rusher, holding him to 53 yards on 22 carries, but allowed Blades 141 receiving yards, the most by a Seattle receiver since he had 160 at New Orleans on September 1, 1991. Kansas City played the last 16:00 minutes of the game without quarterback Joe Montana, who left the game with a foot injury.

13 Indianapolis Colts 31, Seattle Seahawks 19
Sunday, December 4, 1994 — Kingdome

Marshall Faulk and Ray Buchanan sparked the Indianapolis Colts to a 30-19 win over the Seahawks in the Kingdome. Faulk rushed for a Seattle 1994 opponent best 127 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown run, while Buchanan returned an interception 37 yards for a score and recorded a sack. The touchdowns allowed the Colts to overcome a 10-0 Seattle lead built on John Kasay's field goal and Rick Mirer's scoring pass to Paul Green 11 seconds apart in the first quarter. Kasay cut the Indianapolis lead to 14-13 with a field goal before the Colts Dan Majkowski scored on a one-yard run and threw a scoring pass to Sean Dawkins. Faulk had 138 of the Colts 288 yards, while the defense held Seattle to 238 total yards, recorded five sacks and forced five turnovers. Tony Siragusa had 10 tackles, two sacks, and forced and recovered a fumble. Chris Warren, playing with two fractured ribs suffered in a Thursday evening traffic accident, rushed for 81 yards for the Seahawks. Green caught seven passes, equaling the team record for a tight end. Seattle lost quarterback Rick Mirer in the second quarter with a fractured left thumb, which required surgery. Brian Blades caught four passes to surpass 400 for his career.

14 Seattle Seahawks 16, Houston Oilers 14
Sunday, December 19, 1994 — Astrodome

Chris Warren rushed for a personal best 185 yards as the Seahawks held on to defeat the Houston Oilers 16-14 in the Astrodome. Playing with cracked ribs, Warren carried 30 times and had runs of 33 yards for a touchdown and 32 yards. Both his yards and attempts were the third most in team history and were achieved despite ribs that limited him to two carries for one yard in the fourth quarter. Strong took over in that quarter with four carries for 22 yards. Dan McGwire made his first start since October 11, 1992, and third of his career. Seattle jumped to a 16-0 lead on John Kasay's field goal and touchdown runs by Warren and Mack Strong. Cortez Kennedy had set up Kasay's field goal by forcing and recovering a fumble on the game's first play. Kennedy contributed six tackles, three tackles for loss, two sacks, and a forced and recovered fumble to a Seattle defense that limited the Oilers to 208 total yards. Houston scored on a Billy Joe Tolliver-to-Webster Slaughter pass and a 78-yard punt return by Ernest Givins, the Oilers first since 1977. Tolliver connected with Haywood Jeffires on a two-point conversion after Slaughter's score, but strong safety Robert Blackmon stopped Todd McNair with a Tolliver pass at the one after Givins' score. The Oilers had one last chance, recovering an onsides kick attempt at their own 47, but Orlando Watters picked off Tolliver's fourth down attempt. The Seahawks lost free safety Eugene Robinson (Achilles) and left tackle Ray Roberts (broken leg) for the season during the game.

15 Los Angeles Raiders 17, Seattle Seahawks 16
Sunday, December 18, 1994 — Kingdome

The Los Angeles Raiders escaped with a 17-16 win in the Kingdome, when Seattle kicker John Kasay's 43-yard field goal attempt with 9 seconds left was wide right. Kasay's kick came at the end of a 10-play drive started on the Seattle 26 and included a pair of Dan McGwire completion's to Kelvin Martin for 51 yards, a 19-yarder on fourth-and-17 and a 32-yarder to the Raiders 30. Chris Warren then ran twice for five yards setting up Kasay. After a scoreless first quarter, the Raiders jumped to a 7-0 lead on Harvey Williams five-yard run. After the teams traded field goals, Seattle tied the game with 1:00 left in the first half on Warren's 33-yard run. The Seahawks upped their lead to 16-10 on two Kasay field goals, before Hostetler countered with a 77-yard touchdown strike to Tim Brown and a 17-16 lead. Seattle had three more possessions and mounted a drive only on the last one. Warren rushed for 122 yards on 24 carries to set a new franchise single-season record of 1,484 yards, eclipsing Curt Warner's 1986 mark of 1,481 yards. It was his seventh 100-yard game of 1994, tying Warner's record. Brian Blades caught five passes for 70 yards, surpassing 1,000 yards for the third time in his career. Brown caught four passes for 107 yards for the Raiders, while Williams rushed for 93 yards. It was the first game of his career that Eugene Robinson did not play. It was also the first game in Seattle's 291-game history that neither team turned the ball over.

16 Cleveland Browns 35, Seattle Seahawks 9
Saturday, December 24, 1994 — Cleveland Stadium

Vinny Testaverde passed for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead the playoff-bound Cleveland Browns to a 35-9 win over the Seahawks in Cleveland. The win clinched a first-round home postseason game for Cleveland, while the Seahawks finished the season 6-10 for the second consecutive season. Cleveland's game-opening drive was capped by Eric Metcalf's six-yard touchdown run. Testaverde accounted for both second quarter scores as the Browns took a 21-0 halftime lead. Cleveland outgained the Seahawks 205-98 in the first half, controlling the ball for 19:31. After John Kasay kicked a 30-yard field goal on the first possession of the second half, Testaverde threw his second touchdown pass. Mark Carrier concluded the Browns scoring with a 14-yard run on a reverse. The Seahawks only touchdown came on a pass from Stan Gelbaugh to James McKnight with 1:22 left. It was Gelbaugh's first action of the season, while McKnight, a free agent rookie, was seeing his first action on offense. Seattle started their fifth different defensive backfield combination in five games, including free safety Dion Lambert, who had signed with the team on Monday night. Chris Warren finished the game with 61 rushing yards on 16 carries to win the AFC rushing title with a team record 1,545 yards. He also led in total yards from scrimmage with 1,868 yards. Seattle's Brian Blades caught six passes giving him 81, breaking his own 1993 team record of 80.

ONE OF A KIND

Chris Warren is the only player in franchise history to have a rushing, receiving, punt return, and kickoff return play of more than 50 yards in their career. Warren's long rush of 52 yards came at the San Diego Chargers in 1992; long punt return of 59 yards (for a touchdown) came against the Indianapolis Colts in 1991; and long kickoff return of 71 yards came at the Denver Broncos in 1990. He added a 51-yard reception at Denver in 1994.

Pro Football Hall of Fame

1995 Steve Largent, WR (elected in first year of eligibilty)

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

HALL OF FAME: Steve Largent became the first Seahawks player to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, January 28, 1995. Largent will be formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, July 29, along with Jim Finks, Henry Jordan, Lee Roy Selmon, and Kellen Winslow. Largent is the 23rd player to be elected in his first year of eligibility.

NFL RECORDS: Concluded his 14 National Football League seasons with league career records for receptions, 819, since broken by Art Monk (934); yards, 13,089, since broken by James Lofton (14,004) and San Francisco's Jerry Rice (13,275); touchdowns, 100, since broken by Rice (131); consecutive games with a reception, 177, since broken by Monk (180); 50-catch seasons, 10, tied by Gary Clark; and 1,000-yard seasons, 8, since broken by Rice (9). Became only the second person in NFL history to have the career lead in receptions, yards, and touchdowns all at the same time joining Green Bay's Don Hutson (1945). Ranked third all-time at the time of his retirement with 40 career 100-yard games, trailing Don Maynard (50) and Lance Alworth (41). Still ranks eighth in total touchdowns with 101 (has one rushing), fifth with 40 100-yard games, and is 12th in combined yards with 13,396.

CAREER: Finished in the AFC's (or NFC's in 1976) top 10 in receptions ten times in his first 12 seasons, failing only in 1977 and 1982, and in the top five seven times. Led the AFC in receptions in 1978 with 71 and finished second in 1981 (75) and 1987 (58), and was third in the NFC in 1976 (54). The only NFC wide receiver to catch more passes than Largent in 1976 was Dallas' Drew Pearson (58). Largent's total did lead all rookie wide receivers. Finished in the NFL's top 10 in receiving yards seven times, including a first place finish in 1985, and a second in 1978, missing the lead by one yard. Missed only 10 games in his career due to injury, including six in 1989 with a broken elbow. Selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game seven times, after the 1978, 1979, 1981, 1984, 1985, 1986, and 1987 seasons. Unable to play in the 1979 game because of a wrist injury. Set the Pro Bowl career yardage record with 236, since surpassed by Jerry Rice with 317, and ranks third in receptions with 17, trailing Walter Payton (18) and Rice (22). Originally drafted on the fourth round in 1976 by the Houston Oilers. Was waived by the Oilers on August 24, recalled, and traded to the Seahawks for an eighth-round 1977 draft choice on August 26. The Oilers used that choice to select wide receiver Steve Davis from the University of Georgia.

SEAHAWKS RECORDS: Led the team in both receptions and yards in each of the team's first 12 seasons. Voted by his teammates as the Seahawks Most Valuable Player after the 1977, 1979, 1981, 1985, and 1987 seasons. Was also elected Offensive Captain from 1979-83 and 1985-89. Played in more games (200) with more starts (197) than any other player in team history.

PERSONAL: Currently represents the 1st District of the State of Oklahoma. Was elected to the United States House of Representatives on November 8, 1994, and sworn in on November 29. Attended Putnam City High School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where he lettered in football and baseball. Steve and his wife, Terry, have three sons, Kyle, Kelly, and Kramer, and a daughter, Casie.

NO TIES

Not including the two new expansion teams, the Seahawks are the only team in the history of the NFL not to have played a tie game. The Cincinnati Bengals and Tampa Bay Buccaneers have each played one. The closest Seattle has come to a tie was a 20-17 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles in 1992. The Eagles kicked the game-winning field goal as the gun sounded in overtime. There has not been a tie game played in the regular season since the Cleveland Browns and Kansas City Chiefs tied 10-10 during the 1989 season.

COACH HAWK

Since his inception in 1990, Coach Hawk, the mascot for the Seahawks anti-drug campaign, has visited over 140 schools and community activities around the state of Washington, enrolling over 30,000 children in the Hawk Club.

Coach Hawk stands for being a good child, doing the right thing, making the right choices and keeping a healthy mind and body. It's the Seahawks effort to educate young people about the ills of drug use.

The program is two-fold, featuring an activity/coloring book that is sent to all first graders. Each book contains a card to be filled out by the child, enrolling them in the Hawk Club. Each member receives a membership card signed by Coach Hawk, posters, pens, and decals.

The program was conceived by Seahawks minority owner Ken Hofmann with the cooperation of Judith Billings, Washington State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

For more information on the Hawk Club, contact Sarita Carter at the Seahawks Headquarters, (206) 827-9777.
