DECISION ON SUSPENSION OF PLAY

Chiefs vs. Seahawks, October 4, 1998

"We had seen some lightening go across the sky and, in my judgement, the last that we saw was severe enough and too close to the stadium. I felt that it was time to pull everybody out. We can not take a chance with the safety of the players and the fans in the stands. We decided we would suspend the game.

Q: Did you have conversations with the NFL office in NY ?

A: "Not in this case. I made it (the decision) on my own. I tried to contact Phil Lockett (referee) but we couldn't get through on the walkie-talkie. Chiefs PR got a direct telephone line to them and, at that point, I felt that this was not a time to talk. The time was to decide now and get them out."

Art McNally, Assistant supervisor of officials
